36,000 ITALIAN PRISONERS ARE MOVED OUT OF BATTLE AREA IN NORTH AFRICA: BARDIA SHELLED

Offensive Patrols Continue On The Kenya Frontier

THE NUMBER OF ITALIAN PRISONERS MOVED OUT OF THE BATTLE AREA IN NORTH AFRICA IS NEARLY 36,000 WHILE SEVERAL THOUSANDS ARE STILL AWAITING TO BE MOVED UP, SAYS A LONDON MESSAGE.

Bardia is being shelled while British preparations are continuing outside.

A General Headquarters communique from Cairo states: "Our artillery has continued to harass the enemy inside the defences of Bardia while preparations outside are progressing. The number of prisoners evacuated from the area is 35,941 including 1,704 officers.

"Several thousands are still awaiting to be moved up from the forward captures.

"On the Kenya frontier offensive patrols continue."

Greeks Take Coast Town Of Chimarra

THE GREEKS REPORT MORE IMPORTANT SUCCESSES AGAINST THE ITALIANS THAN THEY HAVE CLAIMED FOR A LONG TIME, states a London message.

The coastal town of Chimarra has now been captured by the Greeks after the Italians had been dislodged from strongly fortified positions and forced to leave large quantities of war material. A number of officers and 800 prisoners were taken.

SHIPPING LOSSES

BELOW WEEKLY AVERAGE

TOTAL BRITISH, ALLIED AND NEUTRAL TONNAGE LOST BY ENEMY ACTION during the week ended Dec. 15 was 41,476 tons consisting of five British ships, totalling 30,830 tons, and two Allied, totalling 10,646 tons, states a British Wireless message.

This is well below the weekly average for the whole war which stands at nearly 64,000 tons.

Competent observers point out, however, that satisfactory though this drop may be a steady diminution over a period of a few months must be shown before any real improvement can be claimed.

Weekly average losses for each of the last six months taken in round figures are:—July 51,000 tons; August 54,000; September 100,000; October 85,000; November 86,000 and December (to date) 71,000.

These figures make it evident that menaces from the mine, submarines and the air are still severe but they are regarded, on the whole, as offering ground for encouragement.

Today's War Summary

THE APPOINTMENTS OF LORD HALIFAX as British Ambassador to the United States, Mr. Anthony Eden as Foreign Secretary and Capt. H. D. R. Margesson as War Secretary, are warmly welcomed in the British Press. The appointment of Lord Halifax is generally regarded by newspapers in Britain as representing accurate measure of importance attached in Britain to that post. In recommending the appointment of a Foreign Secretary the Prime Minister has broken all precedents.

MANCHESTER CITY WAS HEAVILY ATTACKED for many hours by German raiders on Sunday night. A large number of fires were caused and considerable damage was done to buildings and shops. It is known that a number of people were killed and many others injured.

LATEST REPORTS FROM THE NORTH AFRICA theatre of war reveal that 36,000 Italian prisoners have been removed from the battle area. Meanwhile Bardia is still being shelled while British preparations are continuing outside.

BRITISH SHIPPING LOSSES DUE to enemy action for the week ended Dec. 15 were well below the weekly average for the whole of the war which stands at nearly 64,000 tons. Five British ships and two Allied were lost.

CHINESE AID FOR AIR RAID FUND

As the result of a big drive launched by the Chinese in Malaya the sum of $30,000 has been raised for the British Air Raid Relief Fund, states a London message.

GRAZIANI EXPLAINS

WESTERN DESERT REVERSES

Marshal Graziani, the Italian Commander-in-Chief in North Africa, has now set out his explanations for the reverses suffered by his troops in the Western Desert, states a London message.

In a report to Signor Mussolini, the Marshal takes the line that the Italian forces were not taken by surprise, but that their defeat was due to superior British training and equipment.

In trying to explain the British success, the Marshal says that he knew about the attack ten days in advance, and that he was about to attack himself when the British made their move.

TERRIBLE ARTILLERY

His report continues: "The R.A.F. flew low over our defence lines and after a terrible artillery and sea bombardment, armoured cars came over and overthrew our centres of resistance."

The Marshal says that the battle was the most bloody, and that many Italian detachments were

Swiss Protest To British Government

BERNE, Dec. 23 (Reuter).—The Swiss Legation in London has been instructed to make a "serious protest" to the British Government, against "grave violations" of Swiss neutrality in flights over Switzerland on the nights of Dec. 21 and 22, and to claim damages.

A communique states that the Department of Investigation "established that the planes were of British nationality and the bombs which fell in Zurich on the evening of Dec. 22 were of British origin and declares that full damages are to be claimed both in respect of property and of injury to the victims, and the Legation is to insist that more effective steps be taken to avoid a repetition of such incidents."

Stronger Malaya Defences

LONDON, Dec. 23 (BWS).—A British Far East Headquarters communique issued at Singapore states: "Substantial reinforcements of all arms for the Far Eastern Command, which recently arrived at Malaya include aircraft, force personnel, Indian infantry, artillery, engineers and auxiliary units."

"These reinforcements will not only strengthen the already formidable defences of Singapore but increase the force in other areas in the Far East."

"NO MORE DETERMINED ENEMY OF HITLER": APPOINTMENT OF LORD HALIFAX TO WASHINGTON POST UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED

Mr. Eden Regarded As Outstanding Opponent Of Appeasement

LORD HALIFAX, Foreign Secretary and a former Viceroy of India, will take over his new appointment as BRITISH AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES in succession to the late Lord Lothian early in the new year, states a London message.

MR. ANTHONY EDEN, Secretary for War since May 13 this year, took over his new office as Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs (a post in which he formerly served) yesterday.

The new War Minister is CAPT. H. D. R. MARGESSON, Chief Government Whip for the past decade.

"There is no more determined enemy of Herr Hitler and all that he stands for than this gentle and great-hearted Englishman."

This comment by the NEW YORK TIMES, is but one of the expressions of approval both in Britain and the United States on the appointment of Lord Halifax to the post of British Ambassador in Washington.

The London message, giving these comments, states that Lord Halifax, in giving up his appointment as Foreign Secretary, is taking a unique step, which shows, beyond any words, the importance which he and the British Government attach to relations with the United States both during the war and after.

DPEP SATISFACTION

Reports from Washington state that the appointment has given deep satisfaction to the United States and adds that Mr. Cordell Hull, U.S. Secretary of State, has the highest regard for Lord Halifax.

A Government spokesman in Washington declared that Lord Halifax was eminently satisfactory as Lord Lothian's successor.

Mr. Eden's appointment in succession to Lord Halifax is also highly approved in the United States, where he is regarded as an outstanding opponent of appeasement.

Commenting on Lord Halifax's appointment, the London message states that his long record of public service, as Viceroy of India, Lord President of the Council and later Leader of the House of Lords, and finally as Foreign Secretary, has fitted him, as few men are fitted, for the new appointment.

His deep sincerity, religious conviction and firm resolution will command respect in the United States as elsewhere, states the London message. Even the most determined opponents of appeasement will find the new Ambassador second to none in his desire for a more vigorous prosecution of the war.

Only one change has been made necessary in the War Cabinet by Lord Halifax's appointment, states the London message.

EDEN'S RETURN

Mr. Anthony Eden, Secretary for War, takes Lord Halifax's seat on his return to the Foreign Office. It is now just three years since he resigned from the Foreign Secretaryship owing to disagreement with Mr. Chamberlain's appeasement policy towards Italy. At that time he was the youngest holder of that office for 84 years.

Lord Cranborne will now go to the House of Lords as Government spokesman. He is 47 years of age. He will retain his office as Secretary for the Dominions.

The other new ministerial appointment does not carry a seat in the War Cabinet. Capt. Margesson, who has been made Secretary for War, has been Chief Parliamentary whip and his talents for organisation will now be devoted to the War Office. He is 39 years of age.

Background To The Cabinet Changes

The background to the changes which have taken place in the British Cabinet following the appointment of Lord Halifax as British Ambassador in Washington, was given in London yesterday by MR. T. B. MARTIN, a well-known Parliamentary Lobby correspondent.

STOP PRESS

CHURCHILL'S MESSAGE TO ITALIANS

"In the last war against the barbaric Huns we were your comrades. Fifteen years after that war we were still your friend."

"Now we are attempting to work out each other's ruin. Now we are at war."

These words formed part of a talk which the Prime Minister, Mr. Churchill, addressed to the Italian people in a broadcast last night from London.

"One man and one man alone has roused the Italian people in the struggle against the British Empire and has deprived the Italian people of the sympathy of the United States."

"It is one man and one man alone who has set the Royal Crown of Italy against the wishes of the Vatican and the Roman Catholic Church and against the wishes of the Italian people who have had no love for this war."

"There lies the tragedy of Italian history," Mr. Churchill went on to trace the cause of the present trouble between Britain and Italy and said how it all arose about the Italian complaint of sanctions over Abyssinia.

Mr. Churchill referred to the Covenant of the League of Nations and pointed out how when Abyssinia wanted to be a member of the League of Nations the British Government had advised against it but Signor Mussolini had desired it and had supported it.

"Abyssinia had become a member of the League and, therefore, a member of the Covenant which provided that its signatories should not wage war on each other."

After declaring that Italy had cast this pledge to the winds, Mr. Churchill went on, "I declare and my words will go far that the Abyssinian quarrel cannot account for or justify the strife that has now broken out between us."

Mr. Churchill reminded Italian people of the message which he sent to Signor Mussolini on May

"Mr. Anthony Eden takes up the seals of office as Foreign Secretary for the second time in his political career," said Mr. Martin. "His first appointment followed after long experience in foreign affairs which began in 1926, when he was Parliamentary Secretary to the late Sir Austen Chamberlain, who was then Foreign Minister."

"When the Government was formed under the late Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, Mr. Eden became Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, and impressed with his knowledge of the subjects dealt with by the Foreign Office, it was, however, as Minister of the League of Nations that he impressed most."

15 in which he said that the British Empire had never wanted to be the enemy of Italy.

In that message, Mr. Churchill asked Mussolini not to take his words as displaying a spirit of weakness or of fear. It was meant to prevent two Christian and civilised nations being opposed to each other.

The Premier also gave Mussolini's reply to his message in which he reminded Mr. Churchill of the initiative taken by the British Government in 1935 to order sanctions against Italy at Geneva.

Mussolini's reply also stated that the character of the Italian agreement with Germany had ranged the two countries in opposite camps.

Mr. Churchill concluded: "That was the answer to my appeal. I make no comment whatever. It speaks for itself. Anyone can see who it was that wanted peace and who it was that wanted peace and who it was that wanted peace and who it was that wanted peace."

"What is the position of Italy today? Where has it led his people after 18 years of dictatorial power? What choice lies open to them now?"

"It is open to the whole battery of the British Empire, and to vigorous counter-attacks of the Greeks."

Mr. Churchill said that what was still open to the Italian people was to allow themselves to be hounded by the Gestapo and terrorized by Nazi domination. "One man and one man alone has been responsible for this and there I leave this story. The day will probably come when the Italian nation and the Italian people will take steps to shape their own fortunes."

THIRTY RICE MERCHANTS FINED $3,150

Magistrate Holds No Case Of Sheer Profiteering

HOLDING THAT THERE WAS NO CASE OF SHEER PROFITEERING AND THAT THERE HAD BEEN EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH FORCED THEM TO SELL IN EXCESS OF THE FIXED PRICE but, at the same time, that there had been a contravention of the Government order, Mr. G. T. Lowry at the Central Magistracy yesterday imposed fines ranging from $100 to $200 when 32 rice merchants were summoned for selling rice at a price higher than that fixed by the Food Controller on Dec. 5.

Mr. F. W. Shaftain, Assistant Director of Criminal Intelligence (Crime) conducted the prosecution, assisted by Insps. F. D. B. Tuckett and W. A. Russell and Sub-Insp. W. N. Darlin and J. Q'Donovan.

Mr. M. A. da Silva, representing Yip Shu-sang, master of the On Fat Loong rice shop, 48 Hau Wo Street, pleaded guilty to the summons.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

In mitigation, Mr. Silva said that his client's shop dealt mainly in firewood and in rice only as a side line.

On that particular day, said Mr. Silva, the master was not in the shop at the time of the sale which was made by an ignorant clerk. He had instructed all his clerks at the time of the prohibition not to sell rice in excess of the prices fixed by the Food Controller.

Mr. Silva continued that his client regretted this very much and invited the Police to investigate thoroughly as to whether there was any other singular instance where his client had sold in excess of the price fixed by Government.

In connection with this Mr. Silva suggested an adjournment so that the Police could examine defendant's books. This was opposed by the Police who stated that this would not be practicable.

It was fined $100.

Mr. J. M. d'Almada Remedios, who appeared for 15 of the defendants, also pleaded guilty.

PURCHASED STOCKS

Mr. Remedios said that all his clients had purchased their stocks before the wholesale prices were controlled. They had to pay to the wholesalers $17 a picul or, in some cases, $17.60. The average was, however, about $17.40 a little over 17 cents per catty. He produced receipts of various defendants to prove this.

It would, therefore, be impossible, said Mr. Remedios, for his clients to sell at the prices fixed by the Food Controller. They either had to sell at a great loss or close up their businesses entirely.

No regulations governing the wholesale prices were enforced until Dec. 11. This, Mr. Remedios suggested, was entirely the fault of the legislature in not making regulations governing the prices of wholesalers at the same time that the prices of the retailers were controlled.

Mr. Lowry: Still, it is a contravention of the Government order.

Mr. Remedios: Yes, your Worship. That is why I am pleading guilty.

Mr. Remedios added that since the summonses were issued his clients were selling at the prices fixed by Government and that the wholesalers were not asking for $17 per picul of rice. He asked that his Worship should look at it from the merchants' point of view.

Replying, Mr. Shaftain said that it was, perhaps, unfortunate that the wholesale prices were not fixed until Dec. 11. But, he argued, it was remarkable that all these people should buy their stocks of rice on the same day.

OBVIOUS COURSE

He suggested that the obvious course to be taken by the rice dealers should, as a whole, be through the Rice Dealers' Association or Guild, to approach the Food Controller on the matter and to point out that the prices fixed were much too high.

This, continued Mr. Shaftain, was not done, and asked the Court to conclude that the defendants had sold in excess of the fixed prices in deliberate defiance of the Government order.

Mr. Lowry then imposed the fines as stated.

Cheung Lam, of the Yee Cheung Hoong rice shop, No. 204A, Queen's Road East, and Chan Ping, of the Chan Ping rice shop, No. 243, Hennessy Road, were fined $200 and $150, respectively.

Stairway Stabbing Is Recalled At Central

UNEMPLOYED ON CAPITAL CHARGE

Allegations that, after several attempts to persuade the deceased to return to his home had failed, defendant stabbed the former while on the way to the police station to settle the matter, were made by Mr. J. Reynolds, Crown Counsel, when outlining the Crown case against WU LEUNG, unemployed, who is facing a charge of murder.

Wu was charged, before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Central Magistracy yesterday, with the murder of a 26-year-old married woman, Lo Kiu, at No. 5 Sheung Fung Lane on Dec. 23.

Mr. Reynolds was assisted by Det. Sub-Insp. R. Cunningham. Mr. Reynolds said that deceased first became acquainted with accused three years ago, the latter then being employed as a car cleaner by Messrs Gilman and Company.

Deceased lived with her elder married sister and her husband and the latter's mother at No. 150 Hollywood Road. Towards the beginning of this year deceased went to live together with defendant and his mother at Spring Garden Lane but moved away from defendant's mother and lived at No. 10 Kennedy Street.

LOST EMPLOYMENT

Defendant lost his job and he and deceased then returned to live with defendant's mother. After a quarrel with defendant's mother deceased left accused and went to her sister. During that time deceased had returned by defendant's house twice.

After defendant had called at the house a number of times deceased's sister, Lo Kam-pun, changed their address, telling no one where they had moved to. One day, while returning from a visit, Lo Kam-pun noticed defendant who was apparently following her. Some time later defendant knocked at the door and shouted for "Ah Kiu" but was told by the inmates that there was no such person.

"WANT TO RETURN"

Accused then asked for the girl who was making the quilt and deceased opened the door. Accused was heard to say, "Do you want to return to Wanchai or

SIXTEEN WOUNDS

Dr. P. F. S. Court testified that he performed the post-mortem examination on deceased who was suffering from 16 wounds, two of which were fatal. In his opinion all the wounds would have been inflicted with the dagger produced by the prosecution.

After evidence was given by Mr. W. Jones, chief draughtsman, P. W. D. Dr. R. Symons, house medical officer, Queen Mary Hospital, Dr. R. E. Alvarez, Local Assistant Bacteriologist, and Pong Nui, the hearing was adjourned to Dec. 31 at 2.30 p.m.

BRILLIANT BATTING PERFORMANCES BY LAY, J. M. GOSANO

Recreio Bowlers Play Havoc With Army Batsmen

YOUNG FRANCIS LAY PLAYED A VERY PROMINENT PART IN HELPING THE K. C. C. TO BEAT THE HONGKONG C. C. on the latter's ground last Saturday. Going in number five, he played very aggressive cricket and runs came off his bat at a rattling pace. In one over from M. F. Haymes he hit a beautiful six into Queen's Road, three boundaries and two singles. His fifty odd minutes' stay at the wicket produced 83 runs in which were included 13 fours. When only eleven runs short of the century, he had the misfortune to be run out.

Donald Anderson who opened the K.C.C. innings with Duggie Hume, and with whom Lay was associated in a big partnership, played a steady innings for 48 runs at which score he was caught by L. T. Ride off the bowling of Harry Owen-Hughes. When the declaration was made, K.C.C. had scored 181 runs for five wickets.

Of the Club bowlers on view, only A. J. Dewar made any impression on the batsmen. He seemed to get a lot of pace out of the ball which kicked like a mule. He caught Archie Zimmerman napping and bowled him before that worthy knew what he was about.

He got Tommy Madar out by the L.W. route, was not at all surprised to see Tommy go this way, as he was much too fond of stepping in front of his wicket to execute his glide shots.

DISAPPOINTING INNINGS

The Club innings was disappointing, none of their batsmen making a sufficiently long stay at the wicket to enable them to make respectable scores. D. S. Robb was the highest scorer for the Club with 17 to his credit.

The Club batting collapse was attributable to Frank Goodwin's and Francis Zimmerman's fine bowling. It must be gratifying to all cricketers to see the former's return to the game. He opened the K.C.C. attack with Zimmerman and took three wickets for only 12 runs. Some measure of credit for the K.C.C. victory must of necessity go to Goodwin.

TAME DRAW AT VALLEY

The match between Craigen-gower and the Indian R.C. at the Valley was a dull affair and ended in a tame draw. The Indians batted first and soon found themselves in difficulties. Abdul Rummajahn was beautifully caught at slip by Percy Ismail who picked the ball very low with his left hand. Having regard for the fact that he is left-handed, I wonder if he would have brought off the catch if it had gone to his right.

Another good catch was brought off by Peter Esmail when he held a fast low one, also at slip, to dismiss Ahmed Madar who has played a useful innings for 43 runs.

The only two Indian batsmen who seemed to be able to cope with the bowling were Madar and

TABLE TENNIS: H.K. MEN WIN

The annual Interport Table Tennis Tournament between Hong-kong and Macao, which was played at the Y.M.C.A., was concluded on Saturday night when Hong-kong won four of the five men's singles, two being unplayed owing to lack of time.

Prizes were distributed by Miss Wu Muk-lan, daughter of Mr. Wu Hon-man, and the results of Saturday's matches were:—

Leung Cheuk-fai (H.K.) beat Wong Wing-lin 2-0; Chow Chum-kong beat Luk La-wu 2-0; Lo Kwai-san beat Wu Kam-ying 2-1; Lee Chum-han beat Kung Wing-po 2-0; Lee Chi-chiu lost to Leung Man-woon 1-2.

THE BLUE BIRD

BREATH-TAKING
TECHNICOLOUR FILM
AT THE KING'S

The amazing mood of rare beauty that has been caught in scenes of 20th Century-Fox's breath-taking production of Maurice Maeterlinck's masterpiece, "The Blue Bird," filmed in the new technicolour and currently at the King's Theatre, has caused much comment and speculation.

One secret of the success of Art Directors Richard Day and Ward B. Linn was that they cleverly eliminated the horizon from all these scenes. (The sets seem literally to be suspended above the earth or at least at the top of the world.)

In the setting for the Land of the Future, for instance, where

DEFENCE OF BRITAIN IN HANDS OF HIGH TALENT

LONDON, Dec. 23 (Reuter). — When Mr. Winston Churchill, the Prime Minister, recently declared that it is not only in Egypt that Britain had officers of the calibre of General Wavell, and his commanders, he was undoubtedly referring to General Sir John Dill, Chief of the Imperial General Staff at the War Office, says Reuter's Military correspondent.

The dam of work between General Dill and Gen. Wavell has been responsible for a military triumph. It is a matter for congratulation that such high talent is at the helm in the immediate future when plans must contemplate the turning of the enemy's sword of invasion and counter-thrusting effectively, and, if possible, fatally.

So long as enemy naval units, barges and troops and air forces are concentrated at any German sea bases from Narvik in the north to Bordeaux in the south, the threat of invasion may become a reality.

During the winter months, the Germans have more opportunity of making their concentrations without observation than in the summer.

The strength of the Luftwaffe is estimated at 30,000 aircraft of which about 7,000 are bombers, so it is likely that the attempted invasion will be heralded by a strong advance of parachute troops.

That the Government believes that such an attack is coming, is certain.

The British victories in North Africa has intensified the likelihood of it. When Italy is defeated and the whole force of the British blockade can be turned against Germany, the Nazis will mobilise their total resources for a final decision.

Hence, the significance to Britain of men like Gen. Dill.

AMERICA-JAPAN WAR AIM OF GERMANY

U.S. Commentator On Nazi Statement

LONDON, Dec. 23 (Reuter). — A broadcast talk from Washington on the subject of the statement made by a Nazi Foreign Office spokesman on America's attitude was given by Mr. Linton Wells.

The noted American commentator said that officials in Washington state that Germany hopes to force the United States into war with Japan.

The object of this would be to divert America's attention to the east.

"Impudence" was the comment by the New York Times yesterday on the Berlin statement.

The German Government, says the paper, is poorly advised if it does not realise that both the political parties and the overwhelming mass of the people are united behind the policy of helping Britain so that the defence of the Atlantic remains in friendly hands.

FOOL-PROOF RUPEES

INDIAN GOVT. TO MINT NEW ISSUE

NEW DELHI, Dec. 23 (Reuter). — The Indian Government has decided to institute large-scale minting of silver rupees for early issue owing to increased demand due to trade and absorption by hoarding.

The new coins will consist of one-half silver and one-half alloy compared with the present coins of eleven-twelfths silver and one-twelfth alloy.

They will have a special groove in the edge which is practically an absolute safeguard against counterfeiting.

VICHY GOVT. AND SYRIA

BROADCAST APPEAL FOR CONFIDENCE

VICHY, Dec. 23 (Reuter). — "If Marshal Petain is determined to take no military initiative against anyone, he is also determined to preserve for France what she has acquired from Spain," declared General Bergeret, the French Minister for Air, in a broadcast from Beirut, reported by the French news agency.

General Bergeret said that he would be able to report very favourably, to Marshal Petain following his inspection of the French air force in Syria and Lebanon.

"Men of Syria and Lebanon: I can assure you that in spite of his preoccupations in Europe, the Marshal is not forgetting any territory where the French flag waves. You can have complete confidence in the Marshal as he has confidence in you."

EARLY COLLAPSE OF KONOYE CABINET IS PREDICTED

CHUNGKING, Dec. 23 (Reuter). — In a leader dealing with the reshuffle of the Japanese Cabinet, the official Central Daily News declared yesterday that the Japanese Cabinet is going to collapse.

The inclusion of Baron Hiranuma as Minister of the Interior and Mr. Araki as Minister without Portfolio is seen by the Chinese Daily as an attempt on the part of Prince Konoye to pacify Rightist elements.

Describing the Konoye Cabinet as Japan's last card and the inclusion of Rightist elements in the Cabinet as the last card of the Premier, the daily predicts the early collapse of the Konoye Cabinet, followed by important political upheavals in Japan.

ANOTHER SHAI MURDER

Japanese Succumbs To Knife Wounds

CHUNGKING, Dec. 23 (Central). — A Japanese consular policeman was found lying in a pool of blood near Wen Miao Road in Nantao, Shanghai, late on the night of Dec. 20, suffering from serious knife wounds, according to the Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury.

He was rushed to the International Relief Committee's hospital in the Refugees Zone, but succumbed shortly afterwards owing to loss of blood.

Japanese gendarmes conducted a rigorous search in Wen Miao Road, but without results.

SOVIET PROTEST LODGED

RUMANIAN ARRESTS SEQUEL

BELOGRADE, Dec. 23 (Reuter). — A protest against an anti-Soviet campaign in Rumania and against describing arrested persons as Communists "when they have nothing to do with the Communist movement," is reported to have been lodged by the Soviet Minister in Bucharest, M. Lavren tieff.

He is reported to have stated that Rumania's actions were "intended to camouflage subversive actions of the Rumanian Legion" and he demanded that they should cease.

"INSTRUCTION" TROOPS
LONDON, Dec. 23 (Reuter). — New detachments of German troops of "instruction" have arrived at Timisoara, Rumania, during the week, according to a Bucharest newspaper report to the Italian news agency.

The report adds that General Huber has been appointed supreme commander of German troops in Timisoara district. Timisoara has important railway communications with Yugo-Slavia and Hungary.

JAPANESE MILITARY MISSION

TOKYO, Dec. 23 (Reuter). — The first Japanese military mission of its kind since 1918 left Japan en route for Germany and Italy yesterday.

The Domei Agency says that the mission, headed by Lieut. General Yamashita, Director General of Military Aviation, is travelling via Siberia.

CLAIM FOR POSSESSION OF HILLMAN MINX

Defendant Questioned On Ability To Purchase Cars On Salary Of $24 A Month

AT THE RESUMED HEARING OF THE CLAIM BROUGHT BY CHAN SI-YING, WIDOW, AGAINST LO SANG, A FORMER FIRST-CLASS DISTRICT WATCHMAN, for the return of a Hillman Minx Saloon, No. 5859, valued at $1,000, before Mr. Justice Williams at the Supreme Court yesterday, the defendant was subjected to a lengthy cross-examination by Mr. J. M. D'Almeida Remedios, for the plaintiff, as to his ability in purchasing motor-cars when his salary, as a district watchman, was only $24 per month.

During the course of the cross-examination, defendant denied that he was married or had a concubine. He stated that he borrowed money from his aunt from time to time, and had borrowed $1,000 from her in March of this year. He went on to say that all loans were free of interest and that he was not required to sign any promissory notes. $700 was paid down as first payment for the car, said witness.

Questioned as to whether he seriously meant to say that his aunt would lend him money every time he needed it, without interest, without promissory note, and without prospects of being repaid, witness replied that there were prospects of repayment.

His Lordship: What prospects? The prospects are that when I sell a car, I will be able to pay her all back.

Asked by Mr. Remedios whether he borrowed $2,000 from his aunt in connection with the purchase of the car, witness said that he borrowed only $1,000 in cash and that the other $1,000 was owing previously.

Mr. Remedios: How did you manage? Your salary was only $24 per month and you had to keep yourself going?—When I borrowed the money I was expecting to pay her back $1,000 when I re-sell the car.

Witness denied that he obtained the money from the plaintiff. He did not, he said in reply to another question, borrow money to purchase car No. 775 as he had $300 left from the previous loan of $1,000. He denied having bought the car (No. 775).

REPAID AUNT $200
Asked what he did with the balance of the $300 from the $1,000, witness said that he repaid his aunt $200, in June, and paid the first month's instalment of $70. He also paid the subsequent four instalments, as his car was making money for him.

Asked whether he had not to pay down a lump sum for the Baby Ford and a deposit of $350 for the Hillman Minx at the time of changing over the first for the second, defendant replied in the affirmative, adding that he again borrowed the money from his aunt. He did not sign any promissory note for this loan.

CAR TAKEN BACK
Witness further admitted having entered into an agreement to purchase car No. 3579 on the hire-purchase system and to having paid a deposit of $250 on that car. He, however, denied that the car was taken back by the owners on his failing to pay the instalments, and said that the car was in a garage for repairs to be carried out.

Pressed by Mr. Remedios whether it was not a fact that the owners, acting under certain conditions in the agreement, took possession of the car from the defendant's garage on Saturday, defendant stated that they did so but without any warning to him. The total amount he paid on that car was only $250.

"A WONDERFUL AUNT"
Mr. Remedios:—You had such a wonderful aunt, why did you not go to her for the $50 (instalment) instead of having the car taken away?—I did not go to her because the car was being repaired.

Questioned as to whether he had re-sold any cars he bought, from loans from his aunt, witness said that he re-sold car No. 775. Reminded by Mr. Remedios that he had told the Court that he never bought car No. 775, witness stated that his reply was a mistake as he did not understand the question. He did buy car No. 775, and that he obtained part of the $500 needed from his aunt.

Witness denied that he went with plaintiff to a goldsmith's shop to melt down the plaintiff's jewellery. Asked as to why plaintiff should want to melt her jewellery, defendant replied that it was because she was in need of money to redeem her mul-tai in Kwong-chau-wan.

SUB-POENAED WITNESS
Leung Yue, motor-car driver, a witness sub-poenaed for the defence, said that he acted as broker for the Baby Ford when it was sold to Lo Sang. Plaintiff was never present on any occasion before the sale was closed.

Cross-examined, witness said that the deposit of $200 was handed to him by defendant to pay to the seller, but that the final payment of $500 was handed direct to the seller by Lo Sang.

His Lordship: According to the defendant, he bought the car from Lau Leung and that the plaintiff was present at that time?—I still say she was not present.

HUSBAND AND WIFE
Lee Hong, a fitter employed by Messrs. Dodwell's Motor Garage, another witness appearing on subpoena, testified to having sold his Hillman Minx to either plaintiff or defendant. They were both present at all stages of the negotiations and also at the paying over of the $130 deposit in a tea-house in Bonham Road.

He could not say who actually bought the car, but as the Baby Ford was registered in the name of Chan Siu-ying he asked her to sign the transfer of the licence. The name of the owner given to him for registration on the Hillman Minx was also that of Chan Siu-ying.

As the plaintiff was introduced to him by defendant as his wife, he naturally took the man to be the buyer. The car was handed over to the purchaser by a broker. At this stage, further hearing was provisionally adjourned to 2.30 p.m. on Jan. 8, 1941.

H.K. AMATEUR DANCING COMPETITION

The annual amateur dancing competition, sponsored by the Hongkong Chinese Dancers' Association, was held at the Ritz on Sunday when a large attendance was present.

Through passengers by the same vessel for Manila were Rev. Fr. D. M. D. Cruzado, Mr. E. Hayim, Mr. E. Hobden, Mr. O. N. Edmunds, Mrs. M. P. Gibbins, Mr. R. Sello, Mr. A. Sello and Mr. A. Sales.

Passengers for Sourabaya were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Yates, Mr. A. A. Yates and Mrs. J. W. Yates, Mrs. K. V. Scheewe and Miss M. J. Francis.

FORTHCOMING WEDDINGS

The following forthcoming marriages are announced:

Mr. Moses Wu, assistant manager, residing at No. 6, Morrison Hill Road, and Miss Alice Wong, nurse, of No. 1, Sharp Street, West.

Mr. Augusto Lau, staff radiographic assistant, residing at No. 10, Prince's Terrace, and Miss Rosa Pereira, of No. 7, St. Francis Street.

ROUND THE POLICE COURTS

AT CENTRAL

IMPERSONATION CHARGE

Appearing before Mr. H. G. Sheldon yesterday on charges of impersonating a police officer and with demanding money with menaces, Tam Chan, 24, unemployed, was remanded 72 hours for further inquiries.

Tam was alleged to have, on Dec. 20, at No. 329 Lockhart Road, ground floor, impersonated as a police officer for an unlawful purpose. Defendant was further alleged to have demanded, with menaces, the sum of $200 from Wan San, 27, iron worker.

Tam pleaded not guilty to both charges.

Det.-Sgt. V. M. Morrison is in charge of the case.

THEFT OF GUNNY SACKS

Pleading guilty to stealing 49 gunny sacks from a godown of Kwan On Co., Morrison Hill Road, on Dec. 22, Wong Sang, 49, unemployed, was sentenced to six weeks' hard labour by Mr. Sheldon yesterday.

Det.-Sgt. Morrison said that at about 5 a.m. a constable on patrol saw defendant carrying two bundles of sacks at Gap Road. When questioned defendant admitted stealing them from the godown.

Defendant also pleaded guilty to a second charge of the possession of a pair of pliers fit for an unlawful purpose.

HOTEL THEFT SEQUEL

Charged with theft of a wallet containing H. K. $30 and $150 Chinese currency, property of C. F. Wong, from Room 318, St. Francis Hotel, on Dec. 22, Wong Tin-sang, 35, unemployed, who pleaded not guilty to the charge, was remanded till this morning, by Mr. Lowry yesterday.

Det.-Sgt. W. Summers prosecuted.

AT KOWLOON

DEMANDING MONEY

Convicted of demanding money with menace, Chan Chau, 26, was sentenced to three months' hard labour, followed by expulsion, by Mr. E. Himsforth yesterday.

Det.-Sgt. Morrison, who prosecuted, said that the complainant, Tang Hin, 40, was a magician, plying his business at the vacant ground at Shanghai Street. On Saturday Chinese Sub-Inspector Wong Nai-hin was waiting for a bus in the vicinity and saw the defendant, and two other Chinese surround the complainant. The defendant raised his fist in a manner as if he was going to strike the complainant. He went up to inquire and the complainant told him that the defendant threatened him and wanted $2 as entrance fee of a society.

The defendant alleged that his brother had paid quite a sum of money to the magician to learn magic but his tricks proved unsuccessful and he was asking the defendant to pay him back the money.

STOLE FROM CAR

Mrs. H. F. Phillips, of No. 28, Kadoorie Avenue, appeared as complainant before Mr. Himsforth yesterday in the case in which Ma Shun-tai, 22, was charged with larceny of a canvas bag and contents.

The defendant, who was arrested by a Chinese constable in the act of stealing the bag from the complainant's car parked outside No. 174, Prince Edward Road on Saturday, was sentenced to six weeks' hard labour, followed by expulsion.

The bag and contents, valued at $26, were recovered.

LARCENY OF RING

Sentence of a month's hard labour, followed by expulsion, was imposed by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen yesterday on Cheung Ping, 33, for stealing a gold ring from a goldsmith.

It was stated that the defendant went to the shop about 6.50 p.m. on Sunday and pretended to buy a ring. The faki gave him a gold ring, valued at $28, which he took and walked out of the shop.

A Chinese constable gave chase and arrested him.

ACCUSED GIVES EVIDENCE

FALSE PRETENCES ALLEGED

Evidence for the defence was given before Mr. G. T. Lowry at the Central Magistracy yesterday in the case in which Henry Chao, 37, broker, is charged with obtaining $14,500 from Wong Bor, proprietor and manager of the Hongkong Sporting Arms Company at No. 22 Pottinger Street on July 19 by falsely pretending that it had been demanded by the Central Trust of China in connection with a certain contract then being negotiated between the latter and the Central Trust.

Mr. W. A. Mackinlay appeared for the prosecution, while Mr. F. I. Zimmerman was for the defence.

PART OF COMMISSION

Defendant refuted complainant's evidence to the effect that he had said that the money had been demanded by the Central Trust as commission. Witness said that the sums paid him were part of the commission money due him for his assistance in bringing about the contract.

He denied having represented himself before Henry H. Lin, of the Central Trust, as a partner of complainant in his firm. He further denied having asked complainant's permission to return the money by instalments of $1,000 per month.

Defendant admitted that complainant had asked him for the return of the money, but he did not do so because the money paid him was part of his commission.

Hearing was adjourned to today at 11.30 a.m.

lottery tickets for the complainant.

Sgt. Haynes said that the defendant had on four occasions obtained money from the complainant on Nov. 4 to buy salt fish. They argued with the complainant's wife, Lo Lin-tai, over the price and there was a fight. It was alleged that the purchaser was assaulted by Lo and a few men.

On returning home Wong told husband. Three days later, it was alleged that the defendant met complainant. He picked up a wooden pole and gave the complainant a blow on the head.

The hearing was adjourned until this afternoon.

ROBBERY SEQUEL

Alleged to have entered a light-house at Capulsun and stole a quantity of valuables, four boatmen, Wu Kwai, 30, Wu Fong, 29, Wu Yan, 23, and Wu Yan-lee, 34, were charged before Mr. Himsforth yesterday with robbery.

Det.-Sgt. A. Allen said that on Nov. 5 the intruders took 100 catties of rice, $20 Hongkong currency, four pairs of ear-rings and a quantity of clothing.

On information received the alleged robbers were arrested on board a boat at Talkoktsui on Dec. 6.

After evidence the hearing was adjourned to Saturday.

On December 14, the complainant gave him $50 to buy lottery tickets. Four days later the defendant came back and told the complainant that he had spent the money in a goddess temple praying for luck and he requested $50 more which the complainant gave him.

The following day the defendant approached the complainant and took away a suitcase, valued at $32.50, which he was supposed to present to the goddess.

The following day the defendant returned and told the complainant that there were 22 devils who wanted to have $1 each. The complainant gave him the money.

The defendant was sentenced to four months' hard labour and is to be expelled from the Colony.

WOUNDING ALLEGED

Appointment Of Halifax Unanimously Approved

The British Press unanimously welcomes the new appointments.

The DAILY TELEGRAPH says: "Lord Halifax has proved himself of outstanding distinction in character and mind. Everyone will appreciate the deep sincerity and broad liberal thought of the new Ambassador."

"Since the final exposure of Hitler no man has been more devoted to the cause of freedom and democracy than Lord Halifax and with a clear conscience we can commend him to our American friends."

The DAILY EXPRESS says: He can meet Mr. Roosevelt knowing the secrets of Mr. Churchill's mind and the attitude of his colleagues at home.

THE TIMES, says Reuter, writes: "No higher tribute could be paid to the late Lord Lothian's work than the consent of the Foreign Secretary to take the vacant place himself."

MORE IMPORTANT

"It is signal recognition of the fact that Anglo-American relations are more important than anything else in our foreign policy—not merely for our present needs but for the whole future of the world."

"It ensures the perpetuation of the spirit in which the late Ambassador undertook and carried out his mission."

The DAILY HERALD writes: "By deciding to send to the United States a man holding the rank of Foreign Secretary, Mr. Churchill has proclaimed the paramount importance of our friendship with America. Personally Lord Halifax has the qualities which the vast responsibilities which have fallen upon him will require."

The Daily Herald approved even more of the return of Mr. Eden to the Foreign Office and says: He has been the most successful Foreign Secretary after Mr. Arthur Henderson.

GREATLY PLEASED

OTTAWA, Dec. 23 (Reuter)—The

Prime Minister of Canada, Mr. Mackenzie King, stated that he is greatly pleased to learn of the appointment of Lord Halifax, and added:

"Lord Halifax will bring to the new post a realistic view of the needs of the hour gained by quite an exceptional experience of conditions in different parts of the world."

Canadians generally highly approved the appointment of Lord Halifax, realising his experience will help to cement the union of opinion between the United States and the United Kingdom.

The appointment is also commended here.

TRANSPARENT SINCERITY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 (Reuter)—That Lord Halifax's widely known transparent sincerity and high handedness will work strongly to his advantage in his new post is the view expressed here.

EDEN AT PALACE

His Majesty the King held a Privy Council yesterday at Buckingham Palace at which Mr. Anthony Eden received his seals of office on appointment as Foreign Secretary and Capt. H. D. R. Margesson as Secretary for War.

The Ministers kissed hands on receiving their seals of office, states a London message.

LABOUR APPROVE

British Wireless adds that the Liberal and Labour Press also warmly approve of the appointment of Lord Halifax.

The News-Chronicle says: "As a former Vicefof of India, as Foreign Secretary during three of the most critical years in British history and as a member of the War Cabinet since the beginning of the present struggle, Lord Halifax has been the key personality in the councils of the nation. Short of dispatching himself to Washington, Mr. Churchill could hardly have done more to emphasise the vital significance of the Anglo-American link."

GRAZIANI EXPLAINS REVERSES IN WESTERN DESERT

wiped out. The troops under General Maletti were eliminated before the attack on Sidi Barrani began, and when the first line of defence try to fall back, they found their retreat cut off. It was then that the Marshal ordered his troops to fall back.

The report goes on to speak of the crushing superiority of the British armoured units and of the naval attacks launched along the coast, while the E.A.F. harried Italian columns on the march and bombed aerodromes and the fortified towns of Tobruk and Bardia.

The Italian Air Force, according to the Marshal's report, could not use its full weight because of bad weather. Among the raids made by the R.A.F. was an attack on Benghazi, 300 miles behind the fighting line.

Marshal Graziani's explanation has caused surprise in London and it is regarded as an example of military ineptitude, states a London message.

Marshal Graziani stated that the British offensive did not take him by surprise, but that it was impossible to resist owing to the positions taken up by the British forces.

In London this is felt that this shows how inefficient the Italian defences were.

FLAT CONTRADICTION

Signor Ansaldo writing in the TELEGRAPH, flatly contradicts the German view that the Mediterranean is an unimportant theatre of the war.

Signor Ansaldo said: "In the last few days, certain foreign observers had inclined to regard the Mediterranean as the second theatre of war. We do not share this view, as we are convinced that it is a main theatre of war equalled to the north in importance."

Signor Ansaldo's argument, however, is in keeping with Italian propaganda. He emphasises the strength of the British forces in Egypt and states that they were greatly reinforced and strengthened by first rate tanks, machine-guns and aircraft.

He described the British offensives as a daring plan carried out with first class equipment and he criticises those Italians who underrated the enemy.

Key Position Of German Economic System Bombed

British bombers were busy over Western Germany again, states a London message and Mannheim was again bombed.

Mannheim is the chief industrial centre of the Upper Rhine and occupies the key position of Germany's economic system. Heavy industries and munition works are centred just here.

Sunday night's attacks followed far and wide raids over vital objectives from the far north to Italy.

The R. A. F. found a new target near Venice, where an oil refinery was set ablaze. All the British planes are reported to have returned safely.

In Norway, British bombers struck at the railway from Oslo to Bergen, while Rotterdam and ports in occupied France were also raided, as well as Brest and Lorient. Again all British planes returned safely.

There was an air raid alarm in Switzerland on Sunday when some bombs were dropped and 11 people were reported to have been injured.

MANCHESTER ATTACKED

The main target of German raiders over Britain was Manchester. The city was heavily attacked for many hours. A large number of fires were caused and considerable damage was done to houses and shops. A number of people were killed and several injured.

This was Manchester's first big attack. The raids began with the dropping of incendiaries in the business areas and firemen worked heroically for many hours battling with the flames.

The attack began after dark and many people were caught in the streets.

Bombs were also dropped on the Merseyside and over central England. Two German bombers were brought down, one in Sussex, when all the crew were killed.

THE CHALLENGE TO DEMOCRACY:

HOW IT HAS BEEN ANSWERED: DEEPER AND GREATER UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN AMERICA AND BRITAIN

"Waking slowly from a long sleep, my people have declared today that the world cannot be half Hitlerised and half civilised. So war between the two worlds is going on and will go on until a better world is created," said PROFESSOR ARTHUR NEWELL, a distinguished American, when he spoke in London on Sunday.

The speaker prefaced his remarks with a glowing tribute to the late Lord Lothian, British Ambassador to the United States, whose death occurred recently.

DEEPER UNDERSTANDING

"On Thursday, Dec. 12," he said, "the British and the American people alike mourned the passing of a great friend of my country. Lord Lothian passed away in a premature call. He worked for a deeper and greater understanding between our two nations and it was on that understanding that he said that all the real hope of the world depends. That was his farewell message."

"Lord Lothian's voice will long continue to speak to Americans with a compunction that may be stronger than his living presence. There was striking sentence in his Baltimore speech: 'This war is not a war between nations like the last war,' he said. 'It is a revolutionary war between the aspirations of man and a free world.'"

"Only 24 hours before that," continued the speaker, "another man had said that there is much more at stake than victory between one country and another. That man was Herr Hitler."

CHALLENGE FLUNG BACK

"Yes, for once he spoke the truth. Here was a challenge thrown to us and we picked it up and flung it back to him. I say WE, because it is not only the British, but we Americans whom he has been pleased to couple with Britain in his vituperative words."

"We thank him for linking us up with the champions of the world he is seeking to destroy. Waking from a long sleep, my people have declared today that the world cannot be half Hitlerised and half civilised. So the war between the two worlds is going on and will go on until a better world is created."

"Let us look at these two worlds," went on the speaker. "I come back to Lord Lothian to do so. Nazism, he said, is the incarnation of a military state governed by discipline and Gestapo methods and expanding its power by ruthless conquest. We have only to contemplate the slave cities of Europe to realise what havoc Herr Hitler has wrought and to understand the ultimate aims of his ruthlessness."

"What have we to set over against this? What is the basis on which our world rests? At once there comes to our lips the word 'Democracy.' As far as England is concerned, certain Americans are reported to have said—speaking off the record—is the expression used—that democracy in England is dead!

VERY MUCH ALIVE

"It seems to us other Americans, who have lived in this country, to be otherwise. It was only last week that the President of the American Club stated that he could not agree with the statement that democracy was dead. Last Tuesday, General Wade Hays, speaking at the opening of the American Eagle Club, said: 'We have proof every day that democracy in England is very much alive and kicking. The debate recently in the House of Commons was yet another indication of this.'"

"In Herr Hitler's world there are no debates—there are only rubber stamps and batons."

"So we see that democracy still lives—it is the flesh and blood of the British people and neither you nor we will suffer the light of learning, on which it is based, to be snuffed out. I know it glows round your Rugby and your Eton. I know well your technical schools and your secondary schools and I know our own schools. Yours and ours they have much in common. They are none of them perfect, but they are serving the truth as they freely see it. Learning has lifted the world before—it will do so again."

"The freedom to worship God is something that lives in this English-speaking world. What of the Nazi world? Herr Hitler is now trying to convince the world about his solititude for the churches, whereas we know that the churches of Germany are free to do just one thing—and that is to fall upon Herr Hitler and make him their god."

"In this strangest of all Christmas seasons," went on the speaker, "there are some of us who believe that there is a way of living and a power to work among men that is the spirit of Bethlehem. In our own democracy at the present time there is a lot of house-cleaning to be done and we have to do it before we pass it on to the world of tomorrow and there is hope—real solid hope and I see that hope as I look at the British and the Americans."

SOLID HOPE

"Mr. Walter Lippman never offered a truer word than when he wrote recently that mankind owes an infinite debt to Britain for giving back to man his valour."

And then Lord Lothian speaks once more—"If you back us, you will not be backing a quitter."

"Everything is justifying those words—here in England, in the Western Desert, in the Adriatic, at Valona, over Germany. Where next? And what about America? President Roosevelt is back from his fishing—mind you I said fishing—in the West Indies and things always happen when F.D.R. gets back from a holiday."

THE VOICE OF AMERICA

"Cut out the dollar talk," he has said. "Give Britain what she needs. Get out the hose-pipe and help her. We can worry about taking it back when it is all over."

"This, I think, is the authentic voice of the American people. Let us now hurry on with the job. For myself, I would go further—but we wait on events. One thing is clear. We too know what a public enemy No. 1 looks like. We have had plenty of them. Speed and more speed is what we must have now from my fellow-countrymen."

Easing Of Tension

Various reports from Vichy state that there is a slight easing of the tension between the French Government and the Germans, states a London message.

It seems apparent that Marshal Petain will not countenance anything that will bring France into hostilities against Britain, and it also seems certain that Marshal Petain's Government will remain unchanged.

IN GOVERNMENT HANDS

A Vichy newspaper states that while Vichy will carry out the terms of the armistice, the armistice had left the French Empire and the means to defend it, in the hands of the Government.

"There is no question," says the paper, "of throwing ourselves actively into politics, but it is a question of keeping our soul intact and maintaining our authority in the Dominions overseas." "Marshal Petain saved the future of France, when he insisted that France should retain her Fleet."

TUNG CHI UNIVERSITY

The Tung Chi University is being removed from Yunnan to south Szechwan, according to Mr. Chow Chun-shih, President of the University.

Mr. Chow said that the new buildings in an undisclosed place in south Szechwan have been partially completed and a part of the 1,300 students have arrived at the new site while the rest are on the way.

The University was in Shanghai prior to the outbreak of the war—(Central News).

20 HOMES FOR REFUGEE CHILDREN

An ambitious plan to raise $400,000 for the establishment of 20 homes for the care and education of 10,000 refugee children has been drawn up by the South China Christian Educational and Industrial Association for Homeless War Refugee Children, sponsored by Bishop Hall and several other prominent local citizens.

The funds, it is understood, will be raised in different places. The quotas are: Hongkong, $50,000; Macao, $25,000; Shanghai, Philippines, Haiphong, Kwang-chowwan, Saigon, Thailand, Burma, Singapore and Java, $75,000; Australia and New Zealand, $75,000; the United States, $100,000; Canada, $50,000 and Hawaii, $25,000.

As the members of the Association are scattered over the foregoing places, it is expected that the campaign will be much facilitated.

One of the homes for refugee children has already been established in Wuchow, east Kwangsi. A number of prominent local citizens are among the advisers, sponsors and members of the Association, including Dr. C. T. Wang, former Chinese Ambassador to the United States, Dr. W. W. Yen, former Chinese Ambassador to Soviet Russia, Sir Shou-son Chow, Sir Robert Kotewall, Mr. Tsh Kung-chao, Dr. Chung Ying-kwong, Professor Hsu Tsi-shan, Hon. Mr. M.K. Lo, Mr. O.K. Yui, Mr. E.H. Lockwood, and Dr. Irene Hotung.

BISHOP WARD RELATES CHANGING SCENES IN U.S., CHINA

CHUNGKING (By Air Mail): "America will not strike the first blow in war if its government can help it," but America is determined that those things which the American people hold dear, and for which the Chinese are struggling, shall not be banished from the earth, said Bishop R.A. Ward of the Methodist Church, in a broadcast over Station XGOX for America.

Speaking on his impressions of the changing sentiments in the United States on the question of war or peace, Dr. Ward said: "During the past few months in the United States, I found this clarifying of world wide issues making much progress. Last year I was in America for six months and again for a similar period this year. A great change had come to my fellow countrymen."

"A year ago they were still bothered much about internal matters, the deficiencies and successes of the New Deal, the coming presidential election, the values of isolation. This year I again travelled widely in my own country, speaking to many audiences, conducting forums, and hearing all sorts of Americans talk, both privately and publicly, devouring newspapers everywhere, and hearing the radio commentators."

"Something has happened inside of Americans. And that something has made a great deal of difference. The President has merely to ask for another billion dollars to get it for national defence. Congress no longer lags behind the administration and public sentiment. Candidates for office vie with each other in promising more efficiency and speed in strengthening American fighting forces, increasing industrial output and the resources of the nation."

"The economic structure of the country is ready for the strain. Factories are running to capacity and many are vastly enlarging their plants. Every shipyard is crowded with new constructions. Great progress has been made in drawing the republics of Central South and North America more closely together than ever before. The wealth of the United States is being released to implement their co-operation. The Americas will act as a unit in world affairs where they are concerned. And they see that even their own interests are at stake in other continents."

NEW ATTITUDE

"The re-election of Mr. Roosevelt was a token of American determination to have no more of academic isolation. Hundreds of new warships and airports, new strategic bases for fleets in both oceans, tens of thousands of airplanes, millions of soldiers, billions of dollars, all are rapidly going into expression of the new American attitude towards the purposes and principles now at struggle across the world."

"And the center of it all is an American determination that those things which Americans hold dear, and for which the Chinese are struggling, shall not be banished from the earth. Indeed, those things shall have a fair right to grow wherever men wish them to grow, unshackled by armed domination and ruthless regimentation."

"America will not strike the first blow in war if its government can help it. But American public sentiment is dangerously near the place—indeed, I fear it is now at the place—where no President nor Congress could forestall America's involvement in war if some other nation committed a war-like act against America. I cannot say that I like all of this. But we Americans—and people in any other part of the world which might be concerned—must now reckon on these evident facts in a changed America."

"A typical America is grateful that his people have again responded to the call to protect those ideas of freedom and representative government which Americans learned from other peoples and, in some real measure, developed for themselves."

"And those of us who have wandered among the nations are also pleased that America has again come somewhat out of her recent stupid narrowness in which she often acted as though she could live only unto herself in the family of nations of which she is a part and in which she must take her full share for human welfare."

ALWAYS A PLEASURE

Referring to his impressions of China, particularly Chungking, Bishop Ward declared: "To return to Chungking is always a pleasure. But this time the pleasure has been mixed with sadness and with inspiration. After another absence of ten months I came again four days ago. I was in West China during the first fourteen months of the present Sino-

Japanese war. Then back briefly in the winter of 1939. And again in the winter of 1940. Now once more, after six months in America."

"An air raid alarm sent us to a bomb shelter in the solid rock of Chungking city's hills. We did not need it to remind us of the terrible hardships which Chungking people have suffered during recent months. The evidences of wanton destruction are daily before our eyes. But they stand in amazing contrast to the spiritual things which one sees and feels in Chungking."

"The Chinese have patiently, even cheerfully, adjusted themselves to difficulties. One does not see haggard and frantic faces, but people who are persistently bent on the next task. Everyone knows that every building may be destroyed in the next bombing season. But all the carpenters and masons are busy on construction. Plenty of people are doing business at the old stand—on the old site if in only a mere shade."

"The same stalwart Chinese men and women of courage who have led China through three years of national struggle and growth still are leading today. And they are leading with a calm, clear determination which commands the deep respect of any American who understands the things which Americans cherish."

"When has such a nation had such continuity of leadership? In other countries, even right now, cabinets have been reformed, commanders and generals and ministers have been frantically changed. But China has found a leadership in which confidence continues. Buildings may be bombed to ashes. But personalities which lead remain."

FAMILIAR FACES

"One finds familiar faces of Chinese leaders of other years still valiantly in chief places of leadership. Yet he also finds a surprising number of other men and women who have taken their important places in strengthening the national structure at its center. Productive, creative personalities are increasing, not decreasing."

"And where have they come from? In almost any gathering of vigorous Chinese leaders in Chungking one is amazed to find people from almost any or all of the provinces, working together with the same spirit and efficiency that typify that solidarity and wide reach of the new national unity which three years of war have so greatly strengthened. Provincial ancestry has dropped to an obscure place."

"During the past three years I have repeatedly watched the making of Chungking's rock tunnels. The perfection of these protections against air raids and the disciplined way in which the attitudes quietly go to them when the alarm sounds is astonishing. There are enough such tunnels to accommodate the entire population of the city at the same time. The people automatically take their emergency belongings and a chair or other coveted convenience and go through the experience as a routine without excitement. The rich and poor alike it seems to be only another incident in the long process to which they are more resolutely committed than in the first frantic days of raids."

"Of course, if you ask, you can hear of their losses in other raids. But that doesn't seem a major topic of conversation. The masses of people have gotten their stride. I haven't been in England since the war began in Europe. But I imagine that the typical sturdy Englishman is not a whit more nonchalant and determined than are those people of Chungking."

"One is amazed at the reassertion of normal life in Chungking. Repeatedly, during the past thirty years have I observed Chinese rebuilding their homes and reopening their stores within a few days or weeks after a fire had destroyed everything. That is exactly what is happening in Chungking. Life persists. People find a way of carrying on. This is no time

DIVINE MISSION OF GERMANY!

LONDON, Dec. 23 (Reuter). — Almighty God has called on Germany to lead the way to a purer and better world, Herr Frank, the Nazi Governor-General of Poland, told an audience at Krakow during a Christmas celebration.

"This Christmas tree," he said, "brings us a sacred message that the German nation has been called upon to establish peace in Europe through Adolf Hitler's victory. The highest good and the greatest gift, Almighty God has given to man is to be a German. We are proud to master the world as Germans. Never before have we been so exalted."

Referring to Hitler, he said: "He sits in lonely sublimity; he is incomparably great in his uniqueness. Adolf Hitler is called upon to be the leader of the world unhampered by anyone. The Almighty has blessed this German nation so that it may carry the light into the wilderness."

for large new buildings. But countless small structures serve present purposes.

BETTER SYSTEM

"The government of Chungking is doing what Englishmen will do for London. Promptly it laid out a better system of streets and boulevards. Even new temporary structures must be set back to the new street lines. A great new Chungking will replace the bombed old Chungking which decades of wranglings could not have remodelled."

"A trickle of American relief funds is being used to erect a colony of homes for the poor riverside workers whose hovels were destroyed. The highly efficient mayor of Chungking who had five years of successful experience as mayor of another great Chinese city before the war, gives close attention to his business-like and detailed administration of the city."

"To Americans all these things are interesting. Americans admire efficiency, alertness and courage. They find them in plenty in Chungking. They know that a great city grew on the ashes of Chicago and modern San Francisco followed the earthquake and fire. From the outset Americans thought that the new life of China would emerge from the struggle and from it. Some other peoples were still thinking of the China of this decade as only the China of past generations. They were wrong. That is clear now."

"The war has transformed Chinese soldiers. I have watched that transformation during the past three years. The former soldiers of war lords often were a motley gang of half bandits, poorly disciplined, rather stupid creatures of somebody's ambitions, alternately feared and despised. But soldiers today have a deserved place of respect. They are soldiers of the nation, soldiers with a purpose. They are fellow patriots with thousands of well-trained civilians who work with them and for them. War often makes soldiers brutal. Especially when they are mere soldiers of fortune, out for booty. But these are not soldiers of conquest. They live among their own countrymen for whose homes, and their own, they are fighting. The systematic and widespread education of the soldiers has made soldiers with a social and national purpose. And that has made a big difference."

"Not that they have become models. But they have become essentially — embryonically — different. And, in contrast to the frequent revolts and out-sellings to the highest bidders in other periods there have been practically no dissatisfactions among the regular Chinese armies which now are vastly larger than the combined war-lord armies of other years."

"The visitor is refreshed by the consistency of the supreme command. Other countries during recent seasons have been changing national partners, tearing up treaties and bargaining for the largest share of war plunder. In China one has a stimulating sense of moral values and a stability of national purpose. Temporary loss of territory, disheartening defeats in the early stages of war, possible compromise with other nations—all of these things have not contrived to change one iota China's essential national purpose. Doubtless this is in part due to a Chinese national trait."

WARTIME SYLLABUS FOR U.S. TEACHERS

Because international affairs are the essence of interest in history classes, government and other social studies, and because not all teachers are prepared to discuss the foreign relations of the United States and have not the time to do extensive reading in that field, the American Council on Education is undertaking to prepare in syllabus form teaching materials in international relations.

The immediate aim is to furnish a concise statement setting forth the basic need of objectivity in appraising the world scene and the place of the United States in that scene.

In addition, the project will take certain areas of importance in international relations in which specific study materials might be prepared for teachers.

Among these subjects are: the "United States and the Western Hemisphere," the "United States and the Far East," the "United States and Neutrality—1789-1940," "Propaganda and Popular Attitudes on International Affairs," "American Defence," the "United States Economy in a Totalitarian World."

MALAYA IS BRITAIN'S "DOLLAR ARSENAL"

SINGAPORE, Nov. 25.—British Malaya has been described as the "dollar arsenal" of the British Empire because her large exports of tin and rubber to the United States provide a handsome balance of trade which in terms of U. S. dollars helps to pay for British purchases of aircraft and other war materials on the "cash and carry" basis required by U. S. neutrality.

It is the policy of the Malaya Governments to conserve all available resources of foreign exchange to increase the country's usefulness as the "dollar arsenal."

TRADE WITH INDIA

There is a growing tendency in Malaya to look more and more to India, Australia and New Zealand for supplies of foodstuffs and manufactured goods which were previously supplied by Great Britain or by countries outside the sterling bloc. The possibility of extending the trade between Malaya and India is being considered.

Malaya's exports which may be of use in the Empire's wartime economy include rubber, tin, iron, bauxite, several minerals needed in armament production including wolfram and tungsten, and vegetable oils.

ECONOMIC WEAKNESS

The principal economic weakness of Malaya is her continued dependence on imported food supplies, especially rice. Nearly two-thirds of Malaya's rice consumption must be met at present by imports. It is possible that arrangements will be worked out for increasing supplies from India and Burma although so far as possible regard must be given to the preference of the population for Thai (Siam) rice.

It is believed that Singapore's industries can be adapted to produce certain wartime requirements. There is, for example, the canning industry in which many millions of dollars have been invested.

The industry is normally concerned with pineapples for the British and Canadian markets but since the ministry of supply ceased purchases the factories have been idle. The industry might be converted to some other foodstuffs to build up a wartime reserve.

OTHER INDUSTRIES

Similarly with other Singapore industries. The engineering works, though occupied already with defence orders, can turn out a variety of goods and many of the small Chinese industrial undertakings, etc., are capable of a considerable range of production.

Already inquiries have been set afoot to ascertain whether India or Australia can use the considerable quantities of scrap iron available in Malaya and which in the past have been sold to Japan.

The output of Canadian newsprint during the first eight months of 1940 totalled 2,300,000 tons as against 1,800,000 tons in the corresponding period of 1939, a gain of nearly 27 per cent.

RECORD SILVER FOX PRODUCTION

Silver fox production in Canada during 1938-39, amounting to 319,693 pelts valued at $5,660,722, was the greatest ever recorded in the history of the Canadian fur trade.

The silver fox is Canada's most important fur product, and comes almost entirely from the fur farms. The low average price of $17.71 per pelt should bring this popular fur within the reach of most Canadian women, and is a far cry from the early days of fox farming when there were comparatively few farms and the supply of ranch-bred animals was limited.

At that time fabulous prices, amounting to as much as $35,000 per pair, were paid for the live animals that were required as breeding stock, but now that the fur farming industry is fairly established and contributing about 40 per cent of the Dominion's raw fur production the animals are raised primarily for their pelts.

IMPORTANT BRANCH

For many years fur farming was concerned principally with the silver fox, but in recent years mink raising has become an important branch of the industry. Mink production has advanced rapidly reaching a total of 220,359 pelts valued at $2,103,774 in 1938-39, an increase of 80,619 pelts and $703,187 over the preceding season. It is estimated that 40 per cent of the number of mink pelts and 50 per cent of the total value represent sales from fur farms.

Other kinds of fur-bearers—red fox, cross fox, blue fox, raccoon, skunk, marten, fisher, etc.—are also found on the farms, and recently the valuable chinchilla, a native of South America, has been added to the list.

The total value of Canada's raw fur production, including pelts taken by trappers and those sold from fur farms, in the 12 months ended June 30, 1939, was $14,288,937, an increase over the 1937-38 season of $1,090,583.

Ontario with $2,538,658 and Quebec with $2,230,280 were the leading provinces with respect to value of raw fur production. New Brunswick, Alberta, Prince Edward Island, the Northwest Territories, Manitoba and British Columbia followed in the order named, each with a value of more than a million dollars.

Saskatchewan's fur output was valued at $983,447, and that of Yukon Territory at $267,721. The total number of pelts of all kinds taken in 1938-39 was 6,492,222 as against 4,745,927 in the preceding season.

Muskrat and squirrel accounted for the greater part of this increase, the number of muskrat pelts totalling 2,295,550 as against 1,748,238, while the catch of squirrels amounted to 2,296,139 compared with 1,244,359 in 1937-38.

CONSERVATION OF FOODSTUFFS

To conserve foodstuffs, the Chekiang Provincial Government has issued an order warning the people against waste. Besides vigorously enforcing the 3-year programme for increased production, the provincial authorities have issued two sets of regulations, one limiting cultivation to only useful agricultural products and the other providing for economy in food consumption.

EAST INDIA FUND GIFT FOR MORE SPITFIRES

LONDON, Dec. 23 (Reuter).—Further gifts for planes and for air-raid distress were announced yesterday. A sum of £1,500 has been received from Chinese members and friends of the Sino-British Cultural Association for air-raid relief and a further sum of £152 has been received from Kenya for the purchase of three mobile tanteens, one for London, one for Liverpool and the third for anywhere in the United Kingdom.

The East India Fund has sent a further gift of £20,000 for the purchase of Spitfires, making its total contributions so far £250,000. The same fund has sent £1,000 to the King George's Fund for sailors.

The Punjab University is putting its entire resources for war purposes at the disposal of the British Government and is also asking for increased facilities for military training for members of the University.

The workshops of the India Railways are turning out large quantities of essential supplies and are arranging to train nearly 2,000 men under the Government of India Scheme stop.

Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands has sent Mr. Winston Churchill a cheque for £5,000, completing the gift of £50,000 for fighter aircraft sent by the Netherlands East Indies on the occasion of Mr. Churchill's recent birthday.

Big German War Profits

Colossal profits are being made by German munitions manufacturers.

This has been established by the International Federation of Transport Workers, which has access to reliable sources of information, in spite of the fact that it is an axiom of National Socialism that all war profits are to be confiscated.

The Federation states that the war for Nazi Socialism is extremely lucrative for the employers. It is true that they have lost much of their freedom. But now that the State and not the cartel orders them what and how much to produce they are generously rewarded by a fantastic level of war profits.

REAL STATE

According to the Federation, elaborate arrangements have been made by the Nazi regime for the concealment of profits, but the camouflage has not prevented German anti-Nazis from ascertaining the real state of affairs.

For instance, the biggest German chemical concern, I. G. Farben, valued its buildings, plants, &c., on Jan. 1, 1937, at 432,000,000 marks. During the last two pre-war years properties totalling 173,000,000 marks were added; in the same period, however, 240,000,000 marks was written off. The sum written off amounted to over one-third of the share capital.

The big mining concerns of the Ruhr, Industrialists, Klockner, Hoesch and Haniel, in the six years 1933-39 increased their properties by 192,000,000 marks, but wrote off 216,000,000. So not only were new acquisitions paid for entirely out of current income but also a considerable part of earlier expenditure on old plant could be written off.

QUALITY OF CHINESE TEA TO BE IMPROVED

In order to further improve the quality of Chinese tea and to promote its marketing abroad, the China Tea Company has decided to establish a large-scale tea manufactory where tea leaves will be minutely examined and graded before being packed for export. The manufactory is expected to start operation early next spring. (Central News)

CHINA'S ECONOMY SAVINGS

The total subscriptions to the Chinese economy savings certificates have broken the 100,000,000 mark.

Up till October the Postal Remittance and Savings Bank had issued $30,000,000 worth of the certificates and the Central Trust, the Bank of Communications, the Bank of China, and the Farmers Bank of China $22,000,000 jointly.

"But it is largely due to the calm, steady, never changing practice of the Generalissimo. His character seems deeply rooted in some of the finest qualities of China's past. Like the greatest of China's sages he would guide the nation by principle."

"Like great leaders of other peoples in times of great crises, he has interpreted to his people their purposes so clearly that they have become more conscious of them. Evidently he has a clear and satisfying philosophy of his own by which he is determined, at all costs, to live and help his country to live. Like some of the greatest leaders of men, he seems steadfastly to refuse to compromise those principles for which he and his nation have committed themselves."

"It is such purposes that are coming more clearly to focus in the present worldwide struggle. For the Chinese those purposes are fundamental. They are also fundamental for mankind. And they are becoming more articulate among other nations with each passing month of the world war, of which the war in China and the war in Europe both are parts." —(Central News).

RAUB AUSTRALIAN GOLD MINING CO., LTD.

Report For Four Weeks Ended 7th December, 1940.

PERIOD 564
DEVELOPMENT
Development footage for the period amounted to 889 feet.
Raub Hole Section

133 Feet Development: The workings have been dewatered to No. 3 level. Development continued satisfactorily both on Nos. 1 and 2 levels.

Anderson Section
37 Feet Development: Work has been concentrated upon cleaning up old levels and picking up an old air shaft to be used as a mullock pass. The section had previously been without means of filling stopes.

Bukit Koman Section
299 Feet Development: Satisfactory developments continue above No. 3 level to the south of the shaft. More thorough examination has been commenced of the old workings in the Bukit Koman North Section with the view to fill where necessary, to extract level pillars, and to look for the extension of many stopes which appear to have been stopped more because of mining difficulties than because of reduced grade.

Derrick Section
306 Feet Development: Driving on No. 3 level and drives both to the north and south from stopes on No. 6 level have been definitely satisfactory.

Malacca Section
94 Feet Development: Winning below No. 2 level continues to be most encouraging.

MINING

A total of 6,740 tons was mined and treated during the period. Grade improved, slightly. Raub Hole 2,434 tons; Anderson 847 tons; Bukit Koman 1,395 tons; Derrick 1,860 tons, and Malacca 404 tons.

GERMAN NIGHT BOMBERS APPEAR OVER WIDE AREA

LONDON, Dec. 23 (Reuter).—Enemy air activity over Britain during daylight hours yesterday was very small but after darkness raiders were reported from several districts, including Liverpool, Midland, northern, west and south-west towns in England and Wales.

Italy's Grip On Abyssinia Is Weakening

SPIRIT OF REVOLT SPREADING

KHARTOUM, Dec. 23 (Reuter).—The sound of British bombs exploding in Italian encampments and the noise of British guns have brought new hope to the Abyssinians, writes Reuter's correspondent in Sudan.

Italy's grip on Abyssinian territory is weakening and revolt is spreading. News of the British victory in the Western Desert has penetrated to the mountain fastnesses of Gollam, the wilderness of Danakil and to wide expanses of bush with their sparse and scattered population.

The news travelled by the mysterious "native telegraph" whereby information flies from village to village in the heart of Africa.

TRIBES RESTIVE
The Royal Air Force's constant and systematic destruction of Italian bases is a clear sign to the restive tribes that Britain's southern army of the Nile is close at hand.

Sudan is buzzing with stories of risings across the border.

In Khartoum itself satisfaction is expressed at the recent House of Commons statement by the Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Mr. R. A. Butler, that the revolt in Abyssinia appeared to be making progress.

WILL TO FIGHT
There is great will to fight and meet Germany throughout the Union of South Africa and in Rhodesia, Tanganyika and Kenya.

This tribute to the contribution being made to the Empire war effort by these countries was paid by a Russian officer who is returning to his armoured car squadron in the Western Desert after an extensive lecture tour in South Africa.

Everybody, he said, is eager to give something either in cash or kind for Britain's war effort.

CHUNGKING, Dec. 23 (Reuter).—The execution of Yang Chuan-yu, former Mayor of Chengtu, was officially announced by the Chinese National Government this morning. The sentence was carried out following his conviction for hoarding foodstuffs while his two accomplices, Ou Shu-yuan, Chungking manager of Tachuan Bank and Li Tso-chen, food merchant at Hochuen, north of Chungking, were sentenced to imprisonment.

Nanking Facing Dilemma Externally, Internally

Sandwiched between external contempt and internal dissension, the Nanking regime is facing a crisis as its sponsor, the Konohe Cabinet, is now in a shaky position, according to revelations made in a letter from a member of Nanking's "Central Executive Committee" to an unnamed former government official residing somewhere in South China.

The letter disclosed that the Wang Ching-wei-Japanese treaty was mainly the result of the intrigue of Col. Sadaki Kagesa, liaison officer of the Tokyo War Office attached to the Nanking regime. For the purpose of this document, Kagesa made five trips to Japan and Gen. Nobuyuki Abe personally returned to Tokyo before the final consent of the Japanese Government was obtained.

Prior to the signing of the treaty, the letter said, a serious controversy raged among the members of the Konohe Cabinet as to whether Wang Ching-wei was worthy of unreserved support. Wang was said to be held in contempt not only by the Cabinet members but also by Konohe himself. The reason why Konohe finally put through the document, the letter explained, was the heavy pressure brought on him by pro-Axis "radical" elements in Japan.

STRONGLY OPPOSED

According to the letter, the treaty was strongly opposed by both the elder Japanese politicians and the capitalist elements. Consequently as soon as it was signed, a crisis developed for the Konohe Cabinet whose position is

Up to a late hour last night, there had been no reports of heavy bombings but in several places the raiders met a strong anti-aircraft barrage.

An alarm was sounded in the London area soon after dusk and there were indications that a very heavy barrage was being put up against the raiders.

During the day one Junkers-88 bomber was reported brought down in south-eastern England.

Two British planes landed in Eire, according to an official statement issued in Dublin, and the crews were interned.

WEEK'S LOSSES
German air raids over Britain during the week ending Dec. 21 were on an unusually light scale but six planes were shot down for the loss of one British fighter.

December 15, 16 and 20—None.
December 17, 18 and 19—One German lost each night.

December 21—Three German, and one British lost.

Meanwhile heavy British raids over Germany, including three concentrated attacks on Mannheim, and a daring 37th raid on Berlin were continued every night. Three British planes were lost during the night of December 15-16, four during the night of December 16-17 and no losses on other nights, including the Berlin raid.

ITALIAN LOSSES
Confirmed figures of the Western Desert air battles for this period are not at present available, but during the week ending December 18, 68 Italian planes are definitely known to have been destroyed in combat for the loss of ten British planes, bringing the WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 (Reuter).—The Administration is considering asking Congress for the authority to requisition foreign ships interned in the United States to permit American ships to carry supplies to Britain, reports the NEW YORK HERALD-TRIBUNE today.

According to this report, Government legal experts could find no ground for the seizure of the ships, so the matter must be put to Congress.

Chances Of Nazi Invasion Weighed By Soviet Paper

MOSCOW, Dec. 23 (Reuter).—"As long as the British Navy retains mastery and the British air force is undefeated," a leading operation in Britain will be extraordinarily difficult," writes Trud, organ of the Soviet Trade Unions.

The newspaper adds: "The British air force is restoring its losses from its own resources and with American aid."

"In spite of shipping losses, total British tonnage exceeds the indispensable minimum of 8,000,000 to 9,000,000 tons."

"According to the foreign press, England has 40 to 50 trained divisions, including at least five tank divisions. In order to make a successful invasion, the Germans must land at least an equally strong force."

ITALO-GREEK WAR
Commenting on the Italo-Greek war, Trud says: "To oppose the Greek offensive, the Italians have concentrated strong forces

Indo-China Frontier Fighting

BANGKOK, Dec. 23 (Reuter).—The sudden revival of fighting on the Indo-China frontier yesterday is revealed in a Thailand communique issued here today.

This states that French troops opened heavy artillery, anti-aircraft, machine-gun and rifle fire on Makompanom from Ithakek.

The French fired over 100 shells but caused no casualties.

Thai guns "retallated promptly and it is believed, destroyed or damaged most of the French gun emplacements."

USED AS SHIELD
"In the Nongkai region," the communique continues, "the quiet French sent out five boatloads of Indo-Chinese troops across the Mekong River. The French, using them as a shield, opened fire from shore, compelling Thai troops to retaliate and kill the Indo-Chinese troops."

"We had no alternative. Two soldiers in the boats were killed."
